WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS.

The regular meeting of the St. Mary's Court, 646, W. C. O. F., deviated from the usual business session on Wednesday, upon invitation of the chief ranger, Mrs. Sara Maloney, who invited the court to be her guests for the day, and assist her in celebrating her 46th birthday anniversary.

At the close of the business session, Mrs. Maloney was invigorated from the room, and upon her return found a delightful surprise awaiting her. The altar had been redecorated and instead of the insignia of the order, an immense birthday cake two feet in diameter rested upon the altar.

The cake was decorated in 46 candles in yellow and white, the colors of the order. At either side of the cake were two beautiful cut glass dishes, the personal gifts of the members of the order to their chief ranger. The long refreshment table was set with a handsome drawwork centerpiece and artistically decorated with white carnations and yellow jonquills.

Before being seated the guests drank the following toast, which was given by the chief ranger: "St. Mary's Court, rise, drink with me this toast, May all the world be taught the love that in us burns; of our benevolence and charity, may every weak hand boast, and may 'St. Mary's, 646,' as last be found with those that God loves best."

The toast cards were white with gilt edges, and the wording was in gilt, each card being tied with yellow ribbon.

Refreshments were served in which the color scheme, white and yellow, was beautifully carried out. Besides the members of the order, the invited guests were: Rev. Fr. Roy, S. J., chaplain of the court; Dr. Geo. B. Calhoun, medical examiner; Mesdames J. Cagney, L. Richstatter, Miss Calhoun and Marion Calhoun.

Music and recitations added to the pleasure of the afternoon.

At the meeting of the letter and art department of the Woman's club, on Wednesday, a most interesting program will be given under the direction of Dr. Ida Bishop, as follows: The Press and Its Power, Mrs. W. C. McCormick. Yellowstone Park, Mrs. Horace Lay. The Railroad—Their Influence, Miss Elizabeth Goff.

After the program there will be a called meeting of the members of the new art department, for the purpose of election of officers, and arranging a program for the ensuing year.

The music department of the Woman's club gave another delightful afternoon of music to the club members and their friends on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. R. Brown. Preceding the program Mrs. M. P. Schuster was elected chairman of the music department for the coming year. Mrs. George Brunner was chosen vice chairman, Miss Adele Morgan secretary, Miss Amy Schutz treasurer.

The last meeting of the year will take place April 27, when the ever popular El Trovatore will be given with Mrs. S. J. Freudenstein in charge of the program. Lohengrin was the study of the afternoon, the program being under the direction of Mrs. E. Kohlberg, who gave a delightful synopsis of the opera. Before the regular program two extra numbers were given, a solo by Miss Julia Pool, which was rendered with fluency and ease, and a song, "Roses Everywhere," by Mrs. G. M. Worthington, who charmed her hearers, not only with the delightful quality of her voice, but also with her pleasing personality.

Miss Gertrude Ellis, one of the younger soloists on the program is the possessor of a voice of unusual sweetness and purity. Mrs. W. D. Howe's charming voice was never heard to better advantage. Her rendition of "Elsa's Dream" was especially pleasing. A. F. Sievers' brilliant execution and masterly handling of the "Wedding March," called forth much applause. The entire program was excellently given and with true artistic interpretation. The program follows:

RECOLLECTION

By Channing Pollock.

Hand in hand we walked together
Down the winding moon-lit way,
Loving in the love-filled weather
Of the mating month of May.
Close at hand a night-bird singing
From its perch among the trees,
And the breath of blossoms clinging
To the warm, caressing breeze—
Oh, my love, thy spirit dies
Wandering under southern skies!

In this land of chili anenando,
Where the snow eternal drives,
Thine the tragedy of spending
All the winter of our lives;
Thine the tragedy, the yearning,
Since thou canst not understand
How I find the way returning
At each pressure of the hand—
In the love-light of thine eyes
Find the stars of southern skies!
